TWO FIRE CO.'S QUIT; DISBAND SATURDAY

Reliance and Relief Out—Columbia Company Only One In Field

PLACES TO BE FILLED

Mayor Names Wm, Desmond Chief and Norman Roberts Deputy Chief Until Council Fills Vacancy

The volunteer members of Reliance Engine Company No. 5 and Relief Truck Company No. 1, at meetings held last night at their respective engine houses decided to disband at midnight Saturday night. Afterward a joint meeting was held by the members of the two companies at the Reliance Engine Company's House and there action was jointly confirmed.

The firemen are going to quit because Fire Chief Ogden resigned effective at midnight Saturday night it is stated and also it is stated because city council refused to comply with their request providing that the speed law of twenty-five miles an hour for fire apparatus responding to fire alarms was not repealed. In brief it is stated that the volunteers from these two companies want the control of the city fire department left entirely in the hands of the fire committee of the city council and the fire chief. This leaves but one fire company in the field which is Columbia Company No. 4. This company did not join the other two companies in their efforts to repeal the prevailing speed law of twenty-five miles an hour.

After midnight Saturday night the members of these two companies numbering about 150 will not be connected with the department and will disband.

Mayor J. M. Duncan today appointed William Desmond, chairman of the fire committee of city council, acting chief of the department and he will serve until council elects his successor. The mayor also appointed Norman Roberts president of the Columbia Company, as assistant fire chief. Both of the new appointments are effective at noon Saturday. This, therefore, is twelve hours ahead of the time for the disbandment of the members of the two foregoing companies.

Mayor Duncan and members of the city council stated today that they will have sufficient men to man the apparatus and take care of the fire situation. Many former members of the fire companies already have signified their intention of joining the volunteers for fire fighting and will become identified with the companies that have quit.

It is understood that several members of the Columbia Company also will assist with the two other companies. It was stated today that there will be no called meeting of city council for any further action in regard to the fire companies and as far as city council is concerned the matter is ended. The only thing to be done in this connection it is stated is the election of a chief to take the place of Chief Ogden and this it is stated will not be presented to city council till the next regular meeting of that body which will be held Tuesday, May 10.

Fire Chief Ogden tendered his resignation March 28 last to Mayor Duncan and after a get together meeting held March 29, the fire chief withdrew his resignation.

He again tendered his resigantion last Tuesday night to common council and at the same time it was laid on the table. The resignation becomes effective at midnight Saturday night.

Armless Girl, 10, Gives Skin to Save Another

Chicago, April 28.—Rosie Saluka, 10 years old, heroine extraordinary, will return to her home in Meadowbrook, W. Va., Friday equipped with artificial arms and prepared to continue her smiling battle of life against odds that have sent many a strong man to his grave.

For some time Rosie has been the life and sunshine of the Salvation Army Rescue Home here, where she has been staying while having the artificial arms fitted.

Rosie was brought up in the dingy little mining town of Meadowbrook, and might never have been known outside that small community had it not been for the accident that all but cost her life. She took hold of a live wire at a mine entrance near her home and when the surgeons from the State Hospital arrived they found her skin charred from hips to shoulders and both arms all but burned off up to the elbows.

During an eight-month stay in the hospital, while surgeons were trying to patch up her little body, another little girl was brought to the institution, also badly burned.

Rosie remembered that there were a few places on her legs that were not burned, and promptly gave enough of her skin to save the other little girl's life.

The Salvation Army workers found Rosie while still in the hospital and brought her to Chicago. In a few days equipped with her metal substitutes for arms ,she will re-enter the world to bring light to the downhearted.

GERMAN OFFER IS IMPOSSIBLE

U. S. Economic Adviser Says Proposals Are Neither "Clear Nor Frank"

MEAN A THIRD LESS

Denounces Suggestion That Germany Will Asume Debts Due America—Would Entangle U. S.

New York, April 28.—Bernard M. Baruch, chief economic adviser to the American delegation at the Peace Conference in discussing the latest German reparations proposals, yesterday said they were neither "clear nor frank," and added that Germany is offering the Allies one-third less than the latter demanded.

He declared further that the eleventh section of the German offer, which says that "the private property of Germans abroad would be also freed," is a "ridiculous and impossible" attempt by them to abrogate certain features of the Versailles treaty already put into effect. Of this particular section of the German proposal, Mr. Baruch said "It's a fairsized nigger in the woodpile."

Of the eighth section, which suggests that Germany would be willing to take over the Allied obligations to the United Stated, Mr. Baruch said that "the United States cannot afford to be placed in the position of accepting for its Allied obligations the bonds of our enemy. We than would be in the position of having to enforce the terms of the treaty—and quite alone."

Commenting on the first section of the proposal in which Germany says it is willing to pay 50,000,000,000 gold marks, Mr. Baruch said that convert ed into our currency that amount is about $12,000,000,000.

He then contrasted this with the proposal made by the Allies for "a gross sum of $54,000,000,000, the payment of which was spread over 42 years, which was equivalent to a present value of $21,000,000,000 at 5 per cent. $18,000,000,000 at 6 per cent. and $12,500,000,000 at 8 per cent, which is about the going market rates that foreign governments would have to pay in this market."

"In other words," he said, "the Germans are offering one-third less at 6 per cent than the Allies ask."

The international loan proposed in the second section is, according to Mr. Baruch, quite "indefinite." He said that thte best the Germans could do would be to float this loan at a rate of 8 per cent., and that "Germany could not float a large loan even at this rate."

"The German offer of $12,000,000,000" Mr. Baruch said, "proposes that this sum should be raised by an inter-Allied loan, and that which cannot be raised in this manner should be cared for by a security bearing but 4 per cent. interest. A German security carrying but 4 per cent. would sell at a considerable discount, and would not represent a capital value of more than perhaps $8,000,000,000."

Of this third section, which discusses the 4 per cent. proposal specifically, he said that "the proposition of any present sum on the basis of 4 per cent. is ridiculous in the extreme, because it is impossible of realization. Germany cannot expect to issue an obligation at an interest rate of one-half of what the Allies themselves would have to pay in gold in the markets of the world."

Discussing the offer to assume debt due the United States, Mr. Baruch said there was nothing in common between the German obligations to the Allies and the Allied obligations to the United States.

"The American Government," he said, "is not going to mix the two up. This confuses instead of clarifies the issue, The United States certainly is not going to put herself in the position of taking the German obligation in place of thte Allied obligation, for then if Germany is unwilling to meet her obligations, the United States would lose all or be forced to take military measures. This is a highly unnecessary entanglement."

But it was the eleventh section which specially aroused the criticism of Mr. Baruch; after saying that the whole proposal to free German property is a ridiculous attempt to abrogate sections of the treaty already in effect, he said:

"This the Germans must know is quite impossible. The United States could neither propose this to the Allies nor sanction it without placing itself in a position where the Congress of the United States which now has control of this property will be obligated morally to return it to German citizens without due regard to the rights of American citizens under the treaty.

"This last proposition shows either dense ignorance on the part of the Germans or an expected stupidity on the part of Americans or a direct effort to deceive. Anyone can judge for himself. Germany must know that this ould result in the abrogation of a very large part of the treaty comprised in the economic clauses."

To Form Branch Here

Retail Merchants to Organize Credit Bureau.

S. H. Talkes, secretary of the National Retail Credit Men's Association of Washington addressed a well attended meeting of the Retail Merchants' Bureau at the Chamber of Commerce rooms last night on the advisability and great benefits to be derived by the local merchants in the formation of a local Retail Merchants Credit Bureau as a branch of the National Association of that organization.

Mr. Talkes impressed the members present with the inestimable benefits to be derived from the formation of such in safeguarding the interests of the local merchants. A sufficient number of members of the Retail Merchants' bureau signified their intention of joining the association by signing the application blanks to make it possible for the committee appointed recently, of which C. Page Waller is chairman, to be able to form a strong branch here.

Mr. Talkes pointed out that if this is done the local merchants will benefit in no les sextent than have the Washington merchants in the six months there has been a local there. The different bureaus exchange information of great benefit to the members of each he said. Sentiment was expressed by those present that in the very near future all of the local merchants would favorably act on what is considered a very important matter and for which the membership fee is nominal.

Cuts Dividend

Pennsylvania Railroad Reduces From 6 to 4 Per Cent.

Philadelphia, Pa., April 28—All other events were relegated to the background yesterday while the eyes of traders and the investing public were turned to the action of the directors of the Pennsylvania Railroad who reduced the dividend on that stock from a 6 to 4 per cent. basis. The stock at the new rate now pays 50 cents a share instead of 75 cents, the latter rate, or higher, having been maintained continuously since 1900. P. R. R., has paid dividends since 1856 having lowered the rate but once to 2 per cent, in 1877, folowing the Pittsburgh riots.

No explanation was given by the directors yesterday, as they felt that it was not needed to those who have been following the railroad situation While the earnings for March have not yet been published, it is doubted in some circles whether the road earned even the 4 per cent. rate in the first quarter of this year. At the closing price of 34, the stock now yields 5.88 per cent. Wide holdings of the stock among more than 135,000 shareholders, a large part of whom are women, had created the greatest possible interest in yesterday's decision, but the cut as made lived up to the expectations of a majority of traders. In the local market dealings were heavy all during the season, and when the news of the cut became known shortly after 1 o'clock, the stock did not break badly, although it sold off to 34, more than a point below Tuesday's close. In New York the price fell a fraction below that figure.

Pennsylvania has maintained an enviable record for payment of dividends all through its history. A total of $652,554,752 has been paid out to stockholders since organization. An average of 6.01 per cent, has been maintained since 1847 on the par value of the stock. The high rate was 10 per cent., and in 1907 it paid 7 per cent. If the old rate had been maintained it would have entailed paying out $7,500,000 in dividends for the quarter, whereas at the lower rate the railroad will disburse $5,000,000 a saving of $2,500,000. As compared with the 33 1-3 per cent. reduction in dividend, the management proposes reductions in wages ranging from 20 to 27 per cent. This general retrenchment all along the line, while disappointing to the investor who depends upon dividends for income, marks a desire on the part of the management to keep strictly within the bounds of good financing.

FRANCE SENDS WORD OF REJECTION

Instructs Jusserand to Tell U. S. German Offer is Unacceptable

READY FOR ADVANCE

Troops and Navy Prepared to Move in 48 Hours After London Meeting Where Offer Falls Short

Paris, April 28.—France officially notified the United States today that the latest German proposals, submitted through President Harding, are entirely unacceptable.

The French reply is expected to reach Washington tomorrow. It will be transmitted to Ambassador Jusserand, who in turn will lay it before Secretary of State Hughes here It is considered doubtful whether the note will be in Secretary Hughes' hands before Friday, the eve of the London conference.

Even should the United States desire to intervene or take a new attitude, it is doubtful whether the United States would have time, for the Allied military machine already is on the move and the Supreme Council of the Allies is likely to reach a decision before America could communicate with it.

In well informed French quarters, however, it is understood America has no desire whatever to interfere with the plans of the Allies.

When Secretary Hughes recently received Allied ambassadors and spoke to them about the forthcoming German proposals he is understood to have disarmed himself at the beginning by declaring he would do nothing whatever without the agreement of the Allies, and not even transmit the German proposals if these were such as to be unacceptable in their eyes. When the German text was received Secretary Hughes handed it to the Allied ambassadors without comment and asked the opinion of their Governments upon it.

France now has completed all military arrangements for commencing operations against Germany 48 hours after the order is dispatched by the council at London. Whatever additional mobilization France has to perform to get together the forces to be used in the occupation of Germany can be done within two days.

Within this time the French fleet also can be under way for naval action against the German ports of Hamburg, Bremen and Lubeck. It is hoped that England will take the lead in naval action and that the British sea forces also are ready to start 48 hours after the word is given.

England is expected to answer in much the same terms as France though she is likely to be less categoric in rejecting Germany's offer.

France enumerates the following points where it declared Germany's proposal falls short:

The German offer represents only a quarter of the total fixed by the Reparations Commission.

It provides no sanctions.

It does away with the Reparations Commission and generally abolishes the Versailles treaty.

It therefore is considered certain in well informed quarters that the United States will not even transmit the German offer. America is expected to reply to the German Government that she refuses to execute its commission. The French are very much pleased at the turn the situation has taken.

On his arrival in Paris last night Rene Viviani, former Premer, who recently returned from a diplomatic mission to the United States, went straight to see Premier Briand.

Industrial Leprosy.

The startling, blood-curdling revelation of the murder of twelve negroes on a Georgia farm recently attracted the attention of the entire country to the greatly misunderstood, generally misrepresented and we believe vastly overestimated term, "peonage in the South."

Veiled hints are now forthcoming that developments in the near future will disclose the Williams death brothel in Georgia to be merely the outcropping of a general system of its hateful diabolical kind throughout the South.

Peonage, another name for enforced servitude, is an industrial leprosy. Where permitted to exist, it will eat into the very tissue and vitals of any community, society, state or nation. It has no place in a democracy, no sanction in civilization, no permit under the law and no business to exist among honest and honorable men. When found to exist, no soothing-syrup methods should be employed in dealing with it. The knife should be applied as to a cancer.

Peonage in the South is undoubtedly isolated, infrequent and against all public approval and sense of justice. As applied to negro labor, it is probably less general in the South than it is in other sections of the country with respect to cheap immigrant labor. Yet that in some instances it does raise its ugly head, as it has done in Georgia, is only too plain and apparent from recent happenings. That a large portion of press and public outside of the South believe it to be quite a general thing in the South is likewise disclosed by recent newspaper comment.

The South must act. The good citizens of Georgia should lose no time in setting themselves behind every movement to punish those connected with the murders on the Williams farm. If, as has been proposed, the federal Government is called in to make an investigation of peonage in the state, they should welcome it and lend it their every support. For the good name of Georgia and the South, they should not only approve but demand that the light be turned into the darkest and most remote possibilities of the situation. And in every other Southern state, right here in Virginia as well as anywhere else, the people of the State should let it be known once and for all that they hold no brief for this infamous substitute for slavery, that they will neither condone nor shield it or anyone indulging in it, and that they mean wherever they suspect it to exist to do their own housecleaning and to do it thoroughly.

Woodland Excursions.

The time is here to lay by the worries and vexations of office, store and household and take to the trail that leads up and over the hill into the spring woodland of good green trees, wild-flowers, silver brooks and bird song.

What are schedules X, Y and Z of the new tariff when just a little way off the dogwood glows white against the forest greens? Who cares about the sale tax, for that matter any tax, when the birches and beeches bend and beckon in new spring livery over the cool, clear crystal rivulets? And all the noise and turmoil of the street and the job, what are they to remember and worry about when one may hear a thrush song from the feathered minstrel of the tree tops?

Those who want to set themselves in tune with the infinite, who wish to wipe clean the slate of care and sorrow and drudgery, who have a mind to begin all over again the business of living largely with fresh courage and stronger inspiration, will not fail to join the springtime excursions to the woods. There they will find all things made new and very wonderful. As the bleak black branches grow green beneath a magic touch hopes that were dead will surge and rise again. "Poems are made by fools like me," wrote Joyce Kilmer, "But only God can make a tree."

Wages and the Cost of Living.

The marine unions have refused point blank to accept a 15 per cent wage cut. Shipowners recently announced a 35 per cent reduction in wages of marine workers and Admiral Benson of the Shipping Board, in an attempt to effect a compromise between the ship owners and workers, suggested that the cut be modified from 35 to 15 per cent.

The reluctance, if not total refusal, of the marine workers to accept any cut in their wages is not surprising. The whole question of getting wages back to a normal basis is bound up with the cost of living. No one can expect the wage-earners of the country to "accept," though they may be forced to suffer, wage-cuts, so long as the cost of a bare existence soars among the clouds.

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

Silver Moon Council, Daughters of Pocahontas, No. 16, will hold a cake sale in the city market Saturday morning.

The regular weekly prayer meeting will be held tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock, at the Anne Lee Memorial Home for the Aged. Judge L. C. Barley will be the leader.

Mr. Grant La Mont, director for the John B. Rogers Producing Co. has arrived and will hold the first rehearsal for the hospital benefit play at 7:30 tonight, in the opera house

Mount Vernon Council, Daughters of America, will hold their regular meeting tonight at 8 o'clock in their hall, 117 North Pitt street. All members are urged to be present.

The first car load of watermelons from the south passed through Potomac yards Tuesday from Fort Myer, Fla., to New York. The car contained 276 melons and the freight manifest showed the price was $1275 f. o. b., Fort Myer.

A colored man giving the name of Grafton Trice, arrested by Policemen Magner an Durrer, charged with the larceny of clothing and a watch from Rooney Jackson, colored, in the police court today was fined $25 with the alternative of spending thirty days in jail.

ACTRESS WILL PROBABLY INHERit $1,000,000

Pittsburgh, April 28.—Effie Fay, well known actress and widow of the late Samuel A. Benner, of New York and Pittsburgh, who died suddenly in Buffalo, N. Y., March 26, most probably will inherit her husband's entire estate which is valued at more than $1,000,000.

Benner, who had been a steel man, left no will, it was learned today. His brother, Assistant City Solicitor Thomas Benner, has gone to New York to take out letters of administration for the estate, but nothing could be learned as to whether or not members of the family would contest Miss Fay's rights.

BOOZE LADEN PLANE SEIZED

Savannah, April 28.—A commercial airplane, loaded with 80 quarts of liquor, but minus a crew, was found peacefully resting on the municipal landing field yesterday. No body knew where it came from or when it arrived and State officials were puzzled what to do with it, though they promptly seized the cargo.

The State Prohibition act does not cover confiscation of bootlegging aircraft. Probably the machine had come from Cuba, officials said, and finally they decided to dismantle it and store it in the police barracks pending determination of its owner ship.

ARREST MADE FOR $113,000 KENTUCKY BANK ROBBERY

Nashville, Tenn., April 28.—Solution of the $113,000 bank robbery at Auburn, Ky., yesterday was expected today following the arrest at Central City, Ky., of two men said to answer the description of the bandits.

The loss to the bank consisted of over $10,000 in cash, $46,000 in unregistered bonds, and $57,000 in registered bonds. Many of the securities were Liberty bonds.

Ex-Kaiser Said Wilson "Should Be Kicked Out"

Berlin, April 28.—"Wilson should be kicked out," was the former German Emperor's comment on the note of the then American Secretary of State Robert Lansing, in reply to Pope Benedict's attempted peace mediation in the summer of 1917.

This revelation is contained in a brochure issued by Philipp Scheidemann, former Secretary for Foreign Affairs, in which the Socialist leader reviews the efforts of the Vatican to halt the war. The former Emperor's marginal comment on Mr. Lansing's communication was;

"Wilson must give up the notion that he can make of the German people what he wants to make it. He must take it as it is. Neither the nation, the army nor the Kaiser will accept the Wilson peace of understanding. Wilson should be kicked out."

PLANS GOVERNMENT OF YAP

Japan to Establish Administration Under Ministry of Marine

Tokio, April 28.—At the regular session yesterday of the Privy Council, presided over by Premier Hara Viscount Uchida, the Foreign Minister made a lengthy report on the mandate question.

It is understood that the Cabinet has decided to place the mandated islands in Pacific, including Yap, under a civil administration in control of the Ministry of Marine.

The newspapers assert that the Government will publish a full report of the mandate question from the time of the Peace Conference.

GAVE HER TEN-YEAR OLD BOY CHASCO-VIN WITH WONDERFUL RESULTS

"My boy who is ten years old had a mean cough that we couldn't get rid of. He had taken doctor's medicine for several weeks, but it didn't seem to help him much. About that time Chasco-Vin was recommended to me and I got it for him. He took two bottles of it and the results were wonderful. He seemed to improve from the first few doses and now his cough is all gone and he eats and sleeps fine. I feel grateful for this and am glad to recommend Chasco-Vin to the public.' Mrs. E. O'Brien, 235 Essex Street, Gloucester, N. J.

The Bread That Nourishes

CORBY BREAD

You'll enjoy the taste and flavor, and the pleasing texture of CORBY BREAD---for it is delightingly delicious. But it is more than palatable---it's richly NUTRITIOUS.

You can have no idea with what scientific care each and every ingredient is selected---tested for food value as well as for purity. And then to make it still more nourishing unusual quantities of milk are added---pure milk.

Only in bread made the Corby way is it possible to reach the CORBY standard of both purity and nutritive value—for it takes these special mixing machines—designed and patented by the Messrs. Corby to obtain full development of the gluten content of the flour.

Always 100 per cent pure; and 100 per cent nutritious.

CORBY BREAD is made right here in Alexandria—and delivered fresh from the ovens to your grocer and delicatessen.

RITES FOR COL. L. S. MARYE

Charlottesville, Va., April 28.—Fune al services for Col. Laurence S Marye, Confederate veteran, news paper writer and essayist, were held at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon from Presbyterian Church, the pastor, Dr. G. L. Petrie, chaplain of John Bowie Strange camp, C. V., officiat ing.

Col. Marye was born at his ancestrial home, Brompton, in Spotsylvania county, known as Marye's Heights, where the armies of Lee and Jackson turned back the troops under Burnside in the winter of 1862. The late Col. Morton S. Marye, for a long time auditor of Virginia, was a brother.

At the outbreak of the civil war Mr. Marye was elected a captain of a company of light artillery.

SPEED BOAT LEAVES NORFOLK DESPITE STORM

Norfolk, Va., April 28.—The express cruiser Gar II, Jr. racing from Miami to New York against the time schedule of the Atlantic Coast Line flyer, groped her way into Norfolk through thick fog yesterday to re-fuel, and put to sea again shortly after 3 p. m., heading north by the outside route, despite storm warnings.

Her owner, Gar Wood, of Detroit, said he had a sufficient time margin to his credit to win if luck was with him on the last lap.

ARMY FLYER KILLED; LIEUTENANT INJURED

Hampton, Va., April 28.—Sergeant Noble C. Bryant, army air service man, was killed and Lieutenant Thomas H. Ward, probably fatally injured yesterday at Langney Field, when their machine crashed to the earth while emerging from a low-hanging cloud bank. The machine was demolished.

Bryant, whose home is in Mayfield, Ky., was piloting the craft which had gone up to make radio tests in connection with preparations for the army's air attack test on navy vessels in June.

It was believed he lost his bearings in the cloud bank.

CORNS

Lift Off with Fingers

Doesn't hurt a bit! Drop a little "Freezone" on an aching corn, instantly that corn stops hurting, then shortly you life it right off with fingers. Truly!

Your druggist sells a tiny bottle of "Freezone" for a few cents, sufficient to remove every hard corn, soft corn, or corn between the toes, and the calluses, without soreness or irritation.

DON'T DELAY

Don't neglect a cough or a cold until it runs into serious sickness. Pneumonia and consumption often have their beginning in a slight cold. At the first indication of a cold, use

Foley's Honey and Tar.

Mrs. D. M. Farmster, Childs, Pa., writes this: "I am writing to tell you of the good Foley's Honey and Tar has done me and I feel much better since I am taking it. I have tried many cough medicines but none relieves my cough and irritation in the throat as much as your medicine and I will be pleased to recommend it to my friends and tell them of the good it has done me."

PASSENGERS IN PANIC WHEN PYTHON ESCAPES

New York, April 28.—The escape of a nine foot python on the Lamport and Holt liner Vauban, four days out from Rio Janeiro, gave 310 cabin passengers, including many women, plenty of excitement on the homeward voyage, which ended with the liner's arrival here yesterday.

A reward of $25 for the python dead or alive was not claimed. A fireman said he thought he was entitled to part of the reward, as he declared he saw it going over the side, chasing a pet monkey belonging to Miss Lucy M. Linderman, of Bethlehem, Pa.

SHOOTS HER GIRL CHUM AND SELF

Chicago, April 28.—Miss Jeanette Hoy, 24, a stenographer, yesterday shot her former roommate, Miss Catherine Davis, 29, a bookkeeper, while standing on a crowded elevated railroad platform in the center of the downtown business section, then ran into a cigar store and shot herself. Both young women were taken to a hospital, where their condition was said to be critical.

The shooting, seen by hundreds of persons, was believed to have resulted from a recent quarrel. Miss Davis, according to her employers, came here a year ago from Chattanooga, Tenn., and took a room with Miss Hoy. A week ago they separated. Two daysago Miss Davis retaining a bullet. At Miss Davis' instigation, Miss Hoy was arrested on a charge of disorderly conduct, but was discharged.

Do you wake up tired?

If you feel "lazy", listless, sleepy at the wrong time, it is a danger signal. Probably your vigor is being sapped by "self-poisoning".

Self-poisoning through constipation leads to the most dangerous diseases. When you allow constipation to take hold of your system, you are paving the way to the whole train of serious illnesses which follow.

Pills, castor oil, laxative waters and salts only force and irritate the bowels and make constipation a habit.

Nujol works on an entirely new principle.

Instead of forcing or irritating the system, it simply softens the food waste. This enables the many tiny muscles in the walls of the intestines, contracting and expanding in their normal way, to squeeze the food waste along so that it passes naturally out of the system.

Nujol thus prevents constipation because it helps Nature maintain easy, thorough bowel evacuation at regular intervals — the healthiest habit in the world.

Nujol is absolutely harmless and pleasant to take. Try it.

Nujol is sold by all druggists in sealed bottles only, bearing Nujol Trade Mark. Write Nujol Laboratories, Standard Oil Co. (New Jersey), 50 Broadway, New York, for booklet "Thirty Feet of Danger".

SPORTS

The Cardinal Athletic Club baseball team—"the oldest known independent sandlot club in America—will open their fifteenth continuous baseball season on the Alexandria High School grounds, Sunday, May 1, at 3 o'clock p. m. The strong Brookland baseball team of Washington will be the Cardinals opponents and a fine baseball game should be witnessed by those who attend.

Manager J. J. McCann's bunch of ball players are known to the followers of amateur baseball as a first class team. They have won three straight games from strong teams and have not been defeated this year and they expect to trim the Cardinals when they come to town next Sunday. While the Cardinals have lost both games played this season—the first to the Gibraltars of Washington, and the second to the Indian Head baseball nine last Sunday by a 4 to 1 score—they are sure to improve in general all around base ball playing as the result of those defeats. When the new and old men understand the playing abilities of each other and work together in contests against strong opponents they are bound to win many baseball games, as many stars will be seen in the Cardinals line up during the coming season.

The great national baseball game is a magnet sure to attract the attention of almost every young man in this country, and those with ability and aspirations to play in the big leagues should be encouraged in every way.

Only a few are fortunate in signing up with major league baseball teams, but there is always room for a youngster who can deliver the goods in the baseball line. Many promising young players injure themselves because they like to pose as "tough guys" and claim to be wise in everything pertaining to baseball and other athletic sports. Much can be learned from the great Walter Johnson, premier pitcher of the Washington team, and the Home Run King Babe Ruth, of the New York Yankees both of whom are modest men and have won fame and success in life by hard work and loyalty to those who brought them before the American baseball public.

It is true that every lad can not be a Walter Johnson or a Babe Ruth but all can make success in life if they try.

Every young man should learn some useful trade—and learn it well, and, making a careful study of all the fine points relating to same for it will prove more valuable in a life time than baseball. Honesty, and a fine workmanship combined are sure to succeed. In baseball, as a rule, a player is a hero one day and a villian the following day. Such is life.

Concerning the Cardinals and Brookland baseball game next Sunday, it is a pleasure to say that the grounds have been plowed, harrowed and graded at the expense of the Cardinals and that the Alexandria High School and the Sunday School Baseball League lads will now have a baseball diamond that is the equal of any in this section of the State. Everybody welcome.

BRITAIN ASKS BERLIN TO EXPLAIN PROPOSALS

London, April 28.—The British Government requested yesterday its representative in Berlin to inquire informally regarding the new German reparations offer for the purpose of clearing up the ambiguity concerning the terms of years in which the payments would be made under the offer.

The Government also desires to learn what rate of discount was proposed.

It was said in official circles today that the latest offer seemed approximately the same as the original Allied demands made at Paris, but that it was impossible to capitalize the offer with the German term. Favorable terms of discounts would capitalize the new offer at an amount which would be certain to result in consideration of them by the Allies but unfavorable terms would be a German offer less than was made at the recent London conference, which naturally would be unacceptable, it was asserted.

Brussels, April 28.—The German counter proposals with regard to reparations were declared in political circles here today to be entirely unacceptable. It was pointed out the new proposals did not differ materially from those submitted by the Germans at the London conference

RHEUMATISM
Leaves You Forever

Deep Seated Uric Acid Deposits Are Dissolved and the Rheumatic Poison Starts to Leave the System Within Twenty-four Hours.

Every druggist in this country is authorized to say to every rheumatic sufferer that if two bottles of Allenrhu, the sure conquerer of rheumatism, does not stop all agony, reduce swollen joints and do away with even the slightest twinge of rheumatic pain, he will gladly return your money without comment.

Allenrhu has been tried and tested for years, and really marvelous results have been accomplished in the most severe cases where the suffering and agony was intense and piteous and where the patient was helpless.

Mr. James H. Allen, the discoverer of Allenrhu, who for many years suffered the torments of acute rhematism, desires all sufferers to know that he does not want a cent of anyone's money unless Allenrhu decisively conquers this worst of all diseases, and he has instructed all druggists to guarantee it in every instance.

Your Are to be Judge and Jury—

SINCE the days before Sir Walter Raleigh traded jewelry with the Indians for tobacco, men have come with the products of their labor for exchange.

Commerce means the selling of our goods to our fellowman who needs these goods and so on down the line of supply and demand.

The initial sale of any product requires salesmanship—but continued sales, the repeat orders which make commerce, depend on the quality of the goods themselves. The buyer, then, is the Judge and Jury who passes on the success or failure of any product.

We want to sell you your first order of the new "Velvet Kind" Ice Cream—but after that, the case is in your hands. We believe that once you've tried this delicious cream you will buy no other.

It is made by our own recently discovered formula and method (Patents applied for to protect our process) fortified by experience and skill.

We do NOT use gelatin, starch, gums, fillers, imitation flavors or foreign substitutes for cream—

But We DO use pure cream, pure milk, pure cane sugar and genuine flavors in "The Velvet Kind" of our creation.
